

Community Support for the FYI Center

The FYI Center would like to recognize Riverwest businessman, Mr. Nathan Stern, for his donation of the first month's rent in our new office facility. We also wish to thank Mr. Stern for his in-kind donations of office furniture.

The FYI Center would also like to thank Mr. Rick Weiderhold and Julie Cimpl from the Elizabeth Brinn Foundation for their ongoing support and encouragement. The Elizabeth Brinn Foundation awarded $30,000 to the FYI Center in January, 2006 to assist with operational costs and to underwrite a portion of the compensation for a Program Director.

Mr. Weiderhold has without a doubt has been a great supporter. To date the Elizabeth Brinn Foundation has been FYI Center's largest financial supporter with total funding of $40,000.

Vincert Cox and Carl Glaum of the Metavante Corporation generously donated four computers for the FYI Center computer resource center. Advisory Board Member Jeff Nguyen donated his services to update the computers, set up the agency computer network system and upgraded the internet connection.

Board Member Alisha Gibson and Derek Williams donated a new television, vcr/dvd player and television stand to aid in the "Aging Out" documentary viewings and other educational tools.

The FYI Center purchased new program materials for its library. Our office now houses the Aging Out series on DVD, as well as a collection of up-to-date information regarding foster care.

The House of Infinity, Inc. donated a beautiful conference table and matching chairs.

Community resident, Margaret Jones, has donated numerous hours of service to the agency.

Thank you to all of our community contributors for their generous support of the FYI Center!

The FYI Center would like to express its thanks to St. Charles Youth and Family Services for the printing of this newsletter and our agency brochures.
